

Nishant eAcademy

CBSE Sample Paper Class 9 Computer Application 2019-20

Subject: Computer Application Class: 9 Maximum Marks: 50 Duration: 2 hours

Section A: Multiple Choice Questions (15 marks)

1. Which of the following is an example of a high-level programming language? a) HTML b) Java c) Binary code
2. What is the purpose of an operating system? a) Creating documents b) Running applications c) Editing images
3. Which of the following is used to create a website? a) Word processing software b) Spreadsheet software c) HTML editor
4. What is the function of a compiler? a) Executes the program b) Translates the program into machine code c) Edits the program

Section B: Short Answer Questions (20 marks)

5. Explain the difference between a compiler and an interpreter.
6. Define a variable in programming and explain its importance.
7. Explain the concept of conditional statements in programming with an example.
8. Write the steps to create a table in a database using a database management system.

Section C: Practical Questions (15 marks)

9. Write a program in any programming language to find the sum of two numbers input by the user.
10. Create a web page using HTML and CSS to display your personal information. Include headings, paragraphs, and formatting.